Public comment on adoption of Ordinance #02-05-02-25 to provide for an administrative fee
For existing utility customers for transfer of water and/or utility services to new address

Motion made by Kay Hebert; seconded by Erica Francis

Nays-0 Yeas-5

Nays-0 Yeas-4 Motion carried

Public comment on Ordinance #02-05-03-25 to provide relative to mandatory connection to the municipal water and sewer utility systems for all residential, commercial and governmental structures situated within the municipal corporate limits in locations served by such utilities, both currently and future; to provide for exemptions to same; and to provide a time limitation for compliance

Motion to adopt by Kay Hebert; seconded by Erica Francis

Nays-0 Yeas-5 Motion carried

Public comment on amendment to Ordinance # 02-05-04-25 alcohol beverage 7.5 to allow change in liquor license requirements for the town

Mrs. Roger Laughlin read letter to the Council in opposition to this change stating it would split revenue among three existing businesses within the same vicinity-literally next door to the existing businesses, one of which her family owns.

Motion to adopt amendment to Ordinance # 02-05-04-25 by Erica Francis; seconded by Tony Guillory

Nays-Trudy Patterson

Kay Hebert noting on record this is setting a precedent against churches, schools, daycares, libraries and any other sect protected by such actions previous and also noting it would split revenues among the same businesses without bringing in revenues and thirdly, this new business owner would be only hiring 4 employees from the locals as stated in a meeting with the Mayor and herself

Yeas-Erica Francis

Tony Guillory

Kim Thibodeaux

Motion carried

Resolution to approve renewal of the East Allen Water Works Contract with the Town of Elton for year
